UPSET MINDED CAVS AIM TO PROVE WORTH AGAINST PERENNIAL POWER TIGERS

The Highland Cavaliers will play in the program's biggest game in recent seasons. UVA-Wise aims to prove its worth as a team as it will go against the national perennial NAIA power Georgetown College.

The contest will be a true "David vs. Goliath" situation in the contest. The Highland Cavaliers trying to recapture their "magic" from the program's two NAIA playoff runs from 1995 and 1996. In those two seasons, UVA-Wise posted a combined mark of 20-3 but fell in the opening round of the playoffs both years.

Georgetown carries the "Goliath" moniker in the matchup with its eyes on another NAIA national title to go with the 2000 and 2001 while being runners-up in 2002.

CAVS PERFECT FOR 1ST TIME IN 10 YEARS

UVA-Wise has won its first four contests for the first time in a decade after defeating Cumberland (TN) University, 59-22 last Saturday. The last Highland Cavalier 4-0 start was in 1996 when the team recorded a perfect 10-0 regular season. UVA-Wise progressed to its second NAIA national playoff run.

UVA-WISE JUMP INTO NATIONAL RANKINGS

UVA-Wise jumped into the NAIA national rankings at number 18 released on Monday afternoon. The 18th national ranking is the highest under fifth-year head coach Bruce Wasem. The Cavs reached 19th in 2005 after a 3-0 start. The Cavs are averaging 50.0 points per game with 200 points in four contests and at least 44 tallies in each game.

ONE-SIDED SHORT SERIES

UVA-Wise moved into the Mid-South Conference starting in the 2002 season. The Cavs have had success against various of the league teams but the Georgetown Tigers have not been one of them. The Tigers boast a 6-0 mark against the Cavs.

Georgetown has owned the short six-year series which started in the 2000 season. The Tigers have scored no less than 45 points in every game while the Cavs have no scored more than 21 points. Georgetown has outscored UVA-Wise 316 to 86 and won by an average of 38.3 ppg.

The three meetings played in Georgetown, Ky. have turned out with the same virtual final scores. The Tigers hold a 171 to 42 point advantage and have held the Cavs to 14 points in each contest.

The game scores were:

2000	Georgetown 45, @UVA-Wise 17
2001	@Georgetown 59, UVA-Wise 14
2002	@Georgetown 56, UVA-Wise 14
2003	Georgetown 49, @UVA-Wise 21
2004	@Georgetown 56, UVA-Wise 14

COACHING MATCHUP

The week's head coaching matchup pits two veteran collegiate head coaches. Georgetown's 10th-year head coach Bill Cronin against fifth-year leader Bruce Wasem for the Cavs.

Cronin has established himself as one of the leading head football coaches in all of the NAIA ranks. In just over nine years, the Tiger leader claimed his 100th victory last week with a win at Belhaven to give him a 100-17 record in his time at Georgetown.

Coach Wasem has been part of all 156 games in the Highland Cavaliers now 16th season. He is in his fifth year at the helm after taking over for his mentor Bill Ramseyer. The Cavs are 17-30 in the last just over four seasons and had a 4-7 year in 2006.

2005 MEETING - TIGERS HAVE THEIR WAY OVER CAVS

Georgetown found the endzone on its first three possessions and rolled over host UVA-Wise. The 12 th-ranked Tigers led 36-0 before taking away a 51-6 rout.

The Tigers marched 40 yards for its first score on the opening drive of the game and never trailed. Jeff Smith hit David Penland from 37 yards on fourth-and-seven to open the scoring.

The Highland Cavaliers put together its only scoring drive late in the third quarter. Freshman QB Scott McMahon plunged into the endzone from a yard out for the Cavs' lone score to make it 36-6 at 3:02 in the third.

Georgetown outgained UVA-Wise 539 to 217 yards. Smith passed for 345 yards on 20 of 31 passes and five touchdowns.

Ra'Shad Morgan ran six times for 29 yards and caught 3 passes for 29 more yards. Kendon Doe grabbed four passes for 21 yards. QB Randy Hippeard and DE Reggie Dorsainvil were two of many Cavs' starters to not see action in the contest.

MORGAN EARNS NAIA NATIONAL AND MID-SOUTH "OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK"

After setting a single game mark for rushing yards on Saturday, the Cavs' running back Ra'Shad Morgan was showered with football accolades. He rushed for a school single-game record 289 yards and four touchdowns to be honored with not only Mid-South Conference "Offensive Player of the Week" but also the NAIA national "Offensive Player of the Week."

Morgan's 289 yards on the ground came on 34 carries for a 8.5-yard per attempt average. The Meadowbrook High School product broked scoring runs of 51, 36, four and 12 yards. He added two pass receptions for 19 yards for 308 all-purpose yards.

MOVING UP CAVS CAREER RECORD RANKS

Two of the biggest cogs of the UVA-Wise offense have the opportunity to move up the program's career record books on Saturday afternoon. Both QB Randy Hippeard and RB Ra'Shad Morgan aim to edge their way up the career passing and rushing list.

In only 12 games, Hippeard is fifth in career passing yards and passing TDs. He has 2,650 yards going into the game. The QB need 15 yards to pass Adam Artrip (1998-01) at 2,664 and 100 yards for 3rd to overtake Josh Mabe (2003-04) at 2, 749. Hippeard has 19 TDs (T4th with Mabe) and needs 3 to overtake Artrip who has 21.

Morgan has 1,953 career rushing yards. He needs 3 yards to move past Godfrey Pestana (1,955) for 5th all-time. Morgan becomes the 5th 2,000-yard rusher with 47 yards and sets a new season best with 84 yards.

Week 1

UVA-Wise 44, Brevard 20

BREVARD, NC -- The Highland Cavaliers used a quick start, efficient offense and an opportunistic defense to rout Brevard College in the Tornados first ever contest. UVA-Wise scored the game's opening 17 points and 27-straight points after Brevard made its way on the board for the eventual 44-20 final score.

QB Randy Hippeard engineered the offense which totaled 454 yards while hitting 19 of 29 passing attempts for 255 and three touchdowns. His main target on the night was flanker Kendon Doe, who set career bests with seven catches for 110 yards and scoring catches of 12 and eight yards. Matt Barbour grabbed three passes for 56 yards and a 42-yard TD.

On the ground, Ra'Shad Morgan had a solid night with 139 yards on 21 carries with a 10-yard TD. Jason Lovett added 10 carries for 61 yards while Chris Laws had a four-yard score and FB Dustin Thompson scored his first TD of his career with a one-yard plunge.

Defensively, SS Matt Gular led with eight stops while MLB Joe Bodenheimer added seven tackles. DT Andrew Hutchings made the most of his two tackles with one tfl while recovering another fumble. Matt Hutchings added three tackles while forcing and recovering the same fumble.

After leading 24-13 at the half, UVA-Wise dominated the third quarter. The offense scored three times, the defense caused two fumbles and held Brevard to five offensive plays to increase the lead to 44-13 before winning 44-20.

UVA-Wise 48, North Greenville 35

WISE, VA -- Ra'Shad Morgan rambled 45 yards with 48 seconds left to put UVA-Wise ahead of North Greenville for good in the Cavs' home opener. Cavs' Reggie Dorsainvil sacked the Crusader QB in the endzone forcing a fumble recovered by Matt Hutchings for the final score for the 48-35 final.

The Highland Cavaliers racked up 467 yards of total offense on 74 plays. Morgan posted his second 100-yard performance of the season with 149 yards on 28 carries with 4 TD's (10, 4, 5 and 45 yds.). QB Randy Hippeard had a solid outing by hitting 25 of 35 attempts for 288 yards with a four-yard TD and one int. Matt Barbour caught seven passes for 95 yards while Herb Watson added four balls for 62 yards and Kendon Doe four receptions for 30 yards and one TD.

Dorsainvil was the defensive standout. He had the key interception of the game to setup the leading score, added six tackles, two sacks for 13 yds. and forced two fumbles. Chad Hooker contributed 10 tackles and a tfl while Matt Gular and Corey Wheeler each had nine stops.

With the game tied 35-35, Dorsainvil intercepted Crusader QB Eric Moeller on the visitor 30-yardline. After an unsportsmanlike penalty, Morgan took the hand off and broke two tackles five yards past the line and continued until reaching paydirt in the endzone to make it 42-35 with 48 seconds left in the game. The Dorsainvil sack and Hutchings fumble recovery on the first NGU play of the next drive made the final 48-35.

UVA-Wise 49, Southern Virginia 13

WISE, VA -- The Highland Cavalier offense amassed 581 yards of total offense and scored touchdowns on their first six possessions to blow past the Knights. UVA-Wise outscored Southern Virginia 22-0 in the second half to run away with a 49-13 victory.

UVA-Wise improved to 3-0 for the second-straight season and have now outscored their three opponents 47-0 in the third quarter of the opening three games.

Cavs' QB Randy Hippeard produced another efficient evening. He led drives of 78, 74, 75 and 64 for scores in the first half possessions and 51 and 67-yard drives in the second half. Hippeard completed 15 of 20 passes for 305 yards and a TD. Kendon Doe caught four passes for 109 yards and a six-yard TD. Matt Barbour grabbed four balls for 79 yards and Aric Evans pulled in three passes for 50 yards with a 29-yard TD. RB Ra'Shad Morgan was well under his season rushing average but scored five times on 86 yards. Chris Laws carried seven times for 92 yards.

On defense, UVA-Wise allowed 202 yards while holding Southern Virginia to -10 yards on the ground in 24 attempts. Corey Wheeler was the top tackler with nine stops, a tfl and a breakup. Reggie Dorsainvil provided two sacks, three tfl's and six tackles. Andrew Hutchings added two tfl's, 1.5 sacks and three stops. LB Chas Johnson tallied eight stops and a tfl.

Southern Virginia did total 282 yards on kick-off returns while only having 202 yards of total offense.

UVA-Wise 59, Cumberland (TN) 42

WISE, VA -- Ra'Shad Morgan dashed to a record-setting 289 yards rushing and four touchdowns to help UVA-Wise race to its best start on the gridiron in a decade. Morgan was the engine in the Highland Cavaliers' potent offense for a 59-42 win over the Cumberland University Bulldogs.

UVA-Wise took its season mark to a perfect 4-0 and the first time the program has started with four wins since recording a 10-0 regular season in 1996, the team's last NAIA playoff appearance. The team has now surpassed 40 points in all four victories and have posted 200 points for a 50.0-point per game average. The Cavs' 59 point effort this afternoon is the most points they have scored since defeating the Newport Apprentice School, 63-7, in the fifth game of the 1999 season.

Morgan totaled his 289 yards rushing on 34 carries to shatter the old UVA-Wise single game rushing record of 248 yards set by Greg Thomas vs. Tusculum in 1996. The junior found the endzone on scampers of 51, 36, 4 and 12 yards to take his season total to 14 touchdowns.

QB Randy Hippeard ran the Cavs offense again solidly as the unit produced a season-best 691 yards of total offense, with 354 yards passing and 337 yards rushing, and 31 first downs. Hippeard completed 15 of 24 attempts for 354 yards and 3 TDs. Aric Evans caught 3 passes for 119 yards and scoring catches of 52 and 57 yards. Herb Watson grabbed 4 passes for 72 yards and a 32-yard TD.

Defensively, Reggie Dorsainvil paced the charge with a career-high 11 tackles, 2.5 tfl's, a sack and forced a fumble. Corey Wheeler added 7 stops, Matt Hutchings produced a sack and forced a fumble on the play and Eric Ludden grabbed an interception.

Cumberland took control early with TDs on their first two possessions to go ahead 14-0. The Cavs answered with 2 scores of their own with a Morgan 51-yard run at the end of the 3rd quarter and Evans 52-yard strike from Hippeard.

Tied 21-21, Ray Damm connected for a 23-yard field goal before Evans streak down the sideline with a 57-yard scoring catch for a 31-21 halftime lead. The Cavs outscored the Bulldogs 28-21 in the second half to go on for the 59-42 victory.
