

WORKSHOPS

BLOCK I – 1:00 p.m. – 2:50 p.m.

1.            Presider:        Briana Allen
Zehmer Hall   Presenters:        Linda Helton                               (PreK-3)
109                                Tazewell, Tennessee
                              "Make and Take Your Own Felt Board"

Participants will choose to make a sky/meadow or sky/water board. The first ten people will not pay a fee; however, after the 10th person enters the room, the charge is $17.00 per felt board. (UVA-Wise paid for 10 boards!)

2.            Presiders:        Jessica Lawson, Jess Lawson, Jessie Mullins (PreK-3)
Darden Hall   "Make-It, Take-It"
109                                Participants will make SOL enrichment and review learning activities to take back to their classrooms.
Materials will be provided.

3.            Presider:        Sharon Bloomer
Zehmer Hall   Presenters:        Nancy Fernander                               (PreK-1)
137 (Limit 15)                                Kodak, Tennessee
                              "Make It and Take It, Mother Goose"

Participants will make a portfolio with rhymes.

BLOCK II – 1:00 p.m. – 1:50 p.m.

4.            Presider:        Leslie Lawson
Darden Hall   Presenters:        Norma Crowder                               (K-3)
118                                Norton City Schools, Norton, VA—1st Grade Teacher
                              "Using Smart Board Technology"

Ideas will be given on how to use Smart Board Technology in reading instruction and/or in literacy work stations.

5.            Presider:        Chandra Mullins
Zehmer        Presenters:        Pam Hall                                       (PreK-1)
223                                UVA-Wise Intern Teacher; SVEA Special Projects Coordinator
"Spring into Kindergarten"

Presenter will share SOLs activities used to teach Kindergarten students. The theme of this workshop is spring. Participants will receive a handout and make an activity.

6.            Presider:        Jaret Bolling
Darden Hall   Presenter:        Heather B. Blanton                               (PreK-3)
132                                Wise County Public Schools, Instructional Technology Resource
                              Teacher

"Circle Time Goes High Tech: Easy, Engaging, and COOL Ways to Use Technology During Calendar/Circle Time Activities"

This workshop will show teachers how to use the Smart Board, web resources, and the curiosity of their students to create meaningful and fun activities that kids will love!

BLOCK II – 1:00 p.m. – 1:50 p.m.

7.            Presider:        Danielle Mullins
Zehmer Hall   Presenter:        Heather Fletcher                               (PreK-1)
224                                UVA-Wise Intern Teacher, SVEA Secretary
                              "Down on the Farm"

Farm Unit ideas and activities appropriate for Kindergarten will be presented. Participants will make an activity and receive a handout

8.            Presider:        Allyson Craft
Zehmer Hall   Presenter:        Penny Herrell                                       (K-3)
205                                Knoxville, TN; TTU Instructor-PSTCC; UVA-Wise Alum; Former UVA-Wise SVEA President
"Integrating Social Studies into the Reading and Writing Curriculum"

Effectively covering all areas of elementary curriculum requires careful planning and integration of subject areas. This presentation will focus on integrating social studies in the primary grades reading and writing workshops. Examples of quality children's literature will be shared, as well as specific student artifacts produced as a result of integrating the subjects.

