

A QUICK GUIDE TO SPRING 2021 CLASSES

EACH INDIVIDUAL CLASS WILL BE DELIVERED IN ONE OF THE FOLLOWING FORMATS

OPTION 1 ►► F2

Lecture/Face-to-Face: Learn in the classroom on campus. Classes will meet on campus at the days and times listed on your class schedule. Wearing facial masks and social distancing will be observed. Remote instruction not available.

OPTION 2 ►► OS

Online Synchronous: Learn at home in real time. The instructor facilitates live lectures and discussions in real time via Zoom at the days and times listed on your class schedule. Classes are 100% online. Some instructors may blend online lectures with independent online work, as indicated on the course listing.

OPTION 3 ►► OA

Online Asynchronous: Learn at home on your own time. No online lectures will be held in real time. Students will work independently and must pay close attention to class deadlines for submitting assignments, tests, and other work. Classes are 100% online.

OPTION 4 ►► HY

Hybrid: Learn on campus and at home. At the instructor's discretion, a portion of the class time is in person, on campus, at the days and times listed on your class schedule and a portion may be in real time via Zoom. The remaining classwork is completed independently online. Wearing facial masks and social distancing will be observed.

HOW WILL I KNOW WHICH COURSES ARE IN WHICH FORMAT?

Every course on the schedule has the instructional method listed: F2, OA, OS and HY.

F2 = Face-to-Face

OA = Online Asynchronous

OS = Online Synchronous

HY = Hybrid

Each course will have the method in the title. Using your Course Search tools, you can browse courses by instruction method. You can also click on the plus (+) sign in front of each course to access additional details.
