

EDU 4080–50: Classroom Management and Discipline

Grading: 3 hour college credit

Course Description:

The class is to study and introduce various effective and productive classroom management strategies and disciplines for more effective teaching.

Course Aims and Objectives:

Aims

Students in this course should be able to:

- Develop effective classroom rules
- Develop classroom management skills in order to be more effective teacher
- Understand and develop classroom objectives to improve learning
- Research various materials to improve professional teaching

Specific Learning Objectives:

By the end of this course, students will:

- To be able to develop effective rules for classroom instruction
- To be able to identify the causes of behavior
- To be able to identify various approaches to managing discipline problems and to be able to utilize them in specific classroom
- To be able to determine effective methods of classroom management by reading various articles on the subject