WHAT TO BRING

Please keep for your information

CLOTHES

The theater work that we will be doing requires loose, comfortable clothing that is easy to move around in, and not restrictive of movement. It should also be clothing that can get worn and dirty. Students will be doing movement-intensive activities every day as well as working in a scene and costume shops with tools and a variety of materials and paint. So, the following clothing is required for safety and function in the classroom, shop, and rehearsal process:

- Multiple pairs of Warm-up 'sweat pants' or yoga pants (loose and comfortable) – jeans, khakis, or tight pants are not allowed for classes or rehearsals
- Multiple t-shirts, a-shirts, or sweatshirts. (Tight/form fitting, and belly-tops are not permitted in classes and rehearsals.) Women should have sports bras or leotards for rehearsals and movement classes.
- Flat soled, closed toe shoes. (NO FLIP-FLOPS for classes/rehearsals/shop-work.) Regular tennis-shoes are the best all purposes shoe! Rehearsals and some classes require bare feet (ballet/jazz shoes optional).
- Appropriate clothing of your choice-casual shorts, jeans, shirts, other shoes-for weekends and evenings
- Dress clothes for possible field trips or social gatherings if you want- no dress code is required.
- Rain gear for walking between classes/rehearsals
- Jacket
- Bathing suit for the campus pool/Slip & Slide events, etc.

SCHOOL SUPPLIES

- Pens, pencils, notebook
- Knapsack or tote bag

FOR THE DORMITORY

- Twin size sheets
- Pillow & Blanket/Sleeping bag (we may go on an overnight field trip and stay in a hotel- 4 to a room)
- Towels, washcloths, soap
- Personal items
- Fan (no Air Conditioning units allowed in Dormitory)
- Traditional Telephone (for receiving calls and for outgoing calls that are credit card or reversed charge calls) or Cell phone- Cell phones can ONLY be used in dorm rooms, not carried around by students.
- Alarm clock
- Laundry soap AND quarters for washing clothes in dormitory laundry room

FOOD

- The dormitory has a fridge and cabinetry. The RA's will have a microwave in their apartment.
- Snacks, drinks you may want in addition to the provided meals in the cafeteria.

RECREATION

- Any recreation equipment you may personally want such as ball gloves, balls, tennis rackets, Frisbees.
- Acoustic instruments: traditional guitar, violin, flute, etc.

MONEY

- Whenever and wherever we go, the Governor's School will pay for all meals and travel. If you want any extras or snacks, you must purchase the items yourself. Most students bring around $50.00.

DO NOT BRING

- DO NOT BRING Televisions, Computers, Video games, Air Conditioner units, or any sort of weapon.
- DO NOT BRING Any item of substantial value- there are many outside groups on campus during the summer and if a door is accidentally left unlocked or an item is left laying around, things could go missing.
