Which course am I supposed to take?

The Center for Teaching Excellence currently offers the following courses that align to the Virginia Department of Education requirements for teachers with a provisional license or special education: general curriculum provisional license. Please use the following guide to help choose the courses that fit your specific endorsement needs.

Elementary Education
PK-3, PK-6

- EDU-3450 Foundations of Reading
- EDU-3600 Human Growth and Development
- EDU-4080 Classroom Management & Discipline
- EDU-4460 Organizational/Instruction Procedures
- EDU-C451 Lit., Assess. & Inst: Lang. Acquisition

Secondary (High School) Education & Career-Technical Endorsed Areas & K-12 Areas (PE, Art, Spanish, Music, etc)

- EDU-3580 Reading in the Content Areas
- EDU-3600 Human Growth and Development
- EDU-4080 Classroom Management & Discipline
- EDU-4820 Design/Development of Instruction ★★

Special Education: General Curriculum

- EDU-3450 Foundations of Reading
- EDU-3600 Human Growth and Development
- EDU-C368 Characteristics Cognitive Disorders
- EDU-3690 Inclusion of Exceptional Children ★
- EDU-3750 Psychoeducational Diagnosis
- EDU-C379 Characteristics Behavior Disorders
- EDU-3810 Diagnostic/Remedial Inst: Elem.
- EDU-3820 Diagnostic/Remedial Inst: Sec.
- EDU-4080 Classroom Management/Discipline
- EDU-C455 Transitioning Students w/Disabilities
- EDU-C456 Collab., Consultation & Case Mgmt.

★★ EDU-3690 meets the foundations of special education & legal aspects course required to initially obtain a provisional Special Education: General Curriculum teaching license.

★★ EDU-4820 Approval/acceptance by DOE may vary based on license endorsement area (i.e. endorsements such as Music and Foreign Language may require curriculum/instruction to be specific to that endorsement). To insure your exact licensure needs are met, the CTE encourages course participants to seek course approval from their employing school division licensure contact or their VA DOE licensure evaluator. The CTE can additionally provide some licensure guidance.