I. Course Description:

Speaking requires many types of sentence structures. When putting words on paper, one has time to think about word choices, but when speaking words, one does not have as much thought time.

Students in this course will learn grammar skills beyond basic grammar. Hopefully, this course will result in improved grammar skills by all who take it, and it will inspire English teachers to teach levels of grammar beyond basic grammar skills.

II. Course Aims and Objectives:

At the completion of this course, the student should be able to do the following:

- Use modifiers correctly.
- Recognize and use clauses and phrases.
- Correctly use all marks of punctuation.
- Edit using knowledge of modifiers, clauses, phrases, and marks of punctuation.
